

Registration card/ Parent contract

I understand and agree that two weeks written notice is needed to end my services. If no notice is given, I am responsible for paying those two weeks. Our billing period is from Monday to Friday. Billing will be completed on Monday . A late fee of $10.00 will be charged each week that the account is not paid by Monday. If payment is not received, children may not attend after Wednesday. If my account with Chelsea's / Fresh Start is left delinquent, I understand that my child will be discharged from the program and their place will become vacant. In addition, the account will be turned over to a collection agency after 30 days unless arrangements are made for payment. We do not discriminate due to race, religion, or special needs. All parents , children and staff are treated with fairness and respect on all levels.

Fresh Start Early Learning Center Inc.

Our Philosophy

It is the philosophy of Fresh Start Early Learning Center that early childhood should be a time of fun, warmth, security, exploration and discovery. The daily program here at the center will provide an atmosphere that encourages all areas of development including physical, mental, emotional, social and creative. The staff here believes in teaching and meeting the children at their level of learning. We include all children in our centers with or without special needs. We strongly believe that all children can learn!
